

McKINNON'S FUNERAL
The funeral of Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, whose death occurred at local hospital, Monday night, will be held in the parlors of the S. & Godby undertaking establishment, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Rev. Ashley will charge of the services. The will be taken, early Thursday morning, to Henryville, in the northern part of the state, for burial.

FLUE BURNED OUT
The Fire Department answered a call Tuesday morning, to the home of Mrs. Isaac Fatlow, Corner 1st and 2nd. A flue burned out and set the roof on fire. The damage was estimated at $100.

FONNIE MAPLE'S FUNERAL WEDNESDAY

Death of Prominent K. of P. of the County

The funeral of Fannie Maple, forty-three, will be held in the M. E. church in Carmel, Wednesday. Rev. Thomas McGee, of Decatur, Iowa, will have charge of the services. Burial in the Carmel cemetery. The death of Mr. Maple occurred Monday. He was a prominent K. of P. and took part in the work of the lodge at the county meeting in city last Thursday night. He was survived by his mother, Mrs. F. Maple, and three sisters, Mrs. F. Huffman, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Edward Daugherty, of Zionsville; and Mrs. Dorval Tochterman, of Kokomo.

CRANE'S STORE CLOSED OUT AT AUCTION

Furniture and Stock Went at Unusually Low Prices

Following a sale which continued early in the forenoon until late in the evening the Crane cigar and pool room were finally closed late Monday evening. The furniture was being removed, Tuesday, and at the same time carpenter

OLDEST CIVIL WAR VETERAN IN COUNTY DEAD AT 93

Thomas W. Brown Passed Away After Long Illness

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD TUESDAY

Succumbed to the Infirmities of Age

The funeral services of Thomas W. Brown, the oldest civil war veteran in Hamilton county, was held in Atlanta Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. C. Reynolds had charge of the services.

The death of Mr. Brown occurred Sunday afternoon. He was ninety-three years of age on the 3rd of last March. The condition of the aged man had been critical for some time, and the end was not unexpected. For the past several weeks his son, Isaac, of Westfield, had been in constant attention on the parents, Mrs. Brown also being in very feeble health.

Thomas W. Brown was born in Mercer county, Kentucky, March 3, 1834. He was a son of Evan and Nancy (Clark) Brown, his father being a Virginian and his mother was also of that state. The parents were wedded in Virginia and emigrated to Mercer county, Kentucky in the twenties of the nineteenth century. Of a family of twelve children, the Atlanta veteran was the last survivor.

Thomas W. Brown left Kentucky when 27 years of age and located in Johnson county, with relatives and while there joined the Union forces with a three-months' volunteer company, re-enlisting for a term of three years. During his service he took part in many battles and engagements, among them being the battles of Prairieville, Ky., Shiloh, Stone River and Vicksburg, at which time he was captured and taken

Hamilton County's "Who's Who"

COL. ORIS O. KINDER

(Photo By Thayer)

One of the young auctioneers of the county who is succeeding in his chosen line of work is Col. Oris O. Kinder, who has an office in the new postoffice building. Although he has been crying sales only about five years, most of this time as a member of the Poland Auction Company, he has become well known over central Indiana as one of the live wires in this line of work.

Col. Kinder was born in Clinton county, being a son of Marion Wesley and Leora (Smith) Kinder. When three years of age his parents moved to Tipton county and the son graduated from the Tipton high school. The family at one time lived on a farm in the vicinity of Ekin and was well known in the northwestern part of Hamilton county. The father was active in Republican politics and served one term as postmaster at Tipton.

Col. Kinder lived on a farm five miles northwest of Atlanta for five years. His marriage to Miss Della Powell occurred in 1920 and they have two interesting children, Julia Anna and Richard, Powell. Mrs. Kinder was a daughter of Frank Powell, who lived west of Noblesville and taught several terms of school in this locality.

Col. Kinder became interested in the auctioneering business in 1922 and at that time became iden-

ESTIMATED PLANS FOR CARMEL

Filed With the Monday By Viewers

AWAITS APPROVAL OF THE

Other Notes of From the Court

After several weeks work, former County Clerk L. M. Stultz, Homer F. John H. Fullwider, former Surveyor of Board viewers on the project through the town of Carmel, Monday afternoon. It is approved the drainage, which is estimated at $60, will be taxed against the property benefited by the project, "and anybody willing to make a donation Stultz put it.

The new plans call for the location of the old drain, the report be used so far as possible. Viewers believe the new plan will relieve the low place of the traction station, where the water and two and a half feet during the wet periods. Recommendations go to the effect that there will be one of three best improvements to be made in the county the coming year. Two are an armory in a new school building.

The case of Queen against John Stephens, the plaintiff is seeking an account of personal property and an automobile accident sent to Hancock county. There are several cases kind pending in the Monday. He was a prominent K. P. and took part in the work of the lodge at the county meeting in this city last Thursday night. He survived by his mother, Mrs. John Maple, and three sisters, Mrs. Edward Huffman, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Edward Daugherty, of Zionsville, and Mrs. Dorval Tochterman, Kokomo.

CRANE'S STORE CLOSED OUT AT AUCTION

Furniture and Stock Went at Unusually Low Prices

Following a sale which continued from early in the forenoon until late in the evening the Crane cigar store and pool room were finally closed late Monday evening. The fixtures were being removed, Tuesday, and at the same time carpenters started to work remodeling the room for the new J. C. Penney store.

The broken packages of tobacco and cigars were sold for whatever they would bring, and in most cases the prices were below cost. Six of the pool tables were bought by John Partlow, of Indianapolis, a former resident of this city, the price being around $50 each. Two of the best tables brought $70 each. The two billiard tables were knocked down for $35 each and as a rule they sell for more than pool tables, it is said. The chandeliers were bought for $1.50 to $2.00 and $2.50 each. One of the show cases used for cigars brought $90 and the other around $115. One cash register sold for $10 and one for $11. The upright cases along the walls were bought by an Indianapolis firm for about one-third of their real value. One of these cases, about twenty feet in length, nine feet high and of beautiful quarter-sawn oak, which was located on the south side of the room, was knocked down for $100.

FRANKFORT BANK CLOSED ITS DOORS

Reported Consolidation Brings Heavy With- drawals

FRANKFORT, Ind., January 31.—The American National Bank, of Frankfort, is undergoing liquidation with guarantees to the depositors which have been made by the other banks of Frankfort. The of the aged man had been critical for some time and the end was not unexpected. For the past several weeks his son, Isaac, of Westfield, had been in constant attention on the parents, Mrs. Brown also being in very feeble health.

Thomas W. Brown was born in Mercer county, Kentucky, March 3, 1934. He was a son of Evan and Nancy (Clark) Brown, his father being a Virginian and his mother was also of that state. The parents were wedded in Virginia and emigrated to Mercer county, Kentucky in the twenties of the nineteenth century. Of a family of twelve children, the Atlanta veteran was the last survivor.

Thomas W. Brown left Kentucky when 27 years of age and located in Johnson county, with relatives and while there joined the Union forces with a three-months' volunteer company, re-enlisting for a term of three years. During his service he took part in many battles and engagements, among them being the battles of Prairieville, Ky., Shiloh, Stone River and Vicksburg, at which place he was captured and taken to Belle Island where he was a prisoner of war for three months. He was exchanged and sent to Fortress Monroe, thence to Baltimore and from there to Camp Chase, O. From that place he was sent to Camp Morton, where he secured a thirty-day furlough to go to Johnson county where the biggest event of his life occurred, this being his marriage to the companion who has been with him throughout the long years. Mrs. Brown is past 80 years of age and she also is in feeble health.

Mr. Brown and his wife came to this part of the state in 1871, locating on a farm northwest of Atlanta. They resided there until a few years ago when they took up their residence in Atlanta. In May, 1925, they decided to enter the soldiers' home at Lafayette, but remained there only a short time, getting homesick for their own home and friends and they returned to Atlanta.

March 27, 1864, Thomas W. Brown was united in marriage to Nancy E. Wilham daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilham, of Johnson county, and this union was blessed with eleven children, six of whom are still living. The children are Thomas Brown, Jr., of Cicero; Isaac Brown, of Westfield; Mrs. Hiram Peter, of Boxley; Mrs. William Dawson and Mrs. Charles Graham, of Tipton, and Mrs. Sam Clark, of Atlanta. He is also survived by a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

MRS. J. A. CARNAGEY DEAD AT MADISON

of the aged man had been critical for some time and the end was not unexpected. For the past several weeks his son, Isaac, of Westfield, had been in constant attention on the parents, Mrs. Brown also being in very feeble health.

Col. Kinder was born in Clinton county, being a son of Marion Wesley and Leora (Smith) Kinder. When three years of age his parents moved to Tipton county and the son graduated from the Tipton high school. The family at one time lived on a farm in the vicinity of Elkin and was well known in the northwestern part of Hamilton county. The father was active in Republican politics and served one term as postmaster at Tipton.

Col. Kinder lived on a farm five miles northwest of Atlanta for five years. His marriage to Miss Della Powell occurred in 1920 and they have two interesting children, Julia Anna and Richard Powell. Mrs. Kinder was a daughter of Frank Powell, who lived west of Noblesville and taught several terms of school in this locality.

Col. Kinder became interested in the auctioneering business in 1922 and at that time became identified with the Foland Company. During the past year he has been conducting a business for himself and has been succeeding well. He moved his family to Noblesville in 1924. They are identified with the Christian church.

BULLETINS

(By United Press.)

INDIANAPOLIS, January 31.—Mayor L. Ert Slack, Democrat, continued to hold the upper hand today in the struggle by the Republican majority of the city council for control of municipal affairs, temporarily secure from dislodgement.

KOKOMO, Ind., January 31.—John E. Fredrick, of Kokomo, manufacturer and president of the Indiana state chamber of commerce, was in the lists today as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the May primary.

TOPEKA, Kas., January 31.—Accomplishments of the Republican party under the leadership of President Coolidge and problems facing the nation on the eve of the coming political campaigns were recited by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., in an address before a gathering of Kansas Republicans here last night.

MARACAY, Venezuela, January 31.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh took off at 6:00 a. m. today in his airplane, Spirit of St. Louis, for St. Thomas, Virgin Islands—a 1,000-mile jump in which he planned to fly in a semi-circle over the Antilles Islands.

of the aged man had been critical for some time and the end was not unexpected. For the past several weeks his son, Isaac, of Westfield, had been in constant attention on the parents, Mrs. Brown also being in very feeble health.

The new plans in the location of the old drain, the report be used so far as viewers believe the relieve the low pliability of the traction mel, where the and two and a half ing the wet period recommendations will be one of the est improvements to county the coming two are an armory a new school build

The case of against John Steph the plaintiff is s on account of per an automobile acc sent to Hancock There are several kind pending in the against Stephenson

The case of the Company against has been comprom missed.

The court has McCroskey a divi garet McCroskey.

In the case of against the Arcad nary, which involv the defendant, the an order to conti ville Trust Compan receiver.

In the case of S ing W. Day are the court has giv a title to lot No. Phelps addition to Bethlehem, now Ca

The W. T. Raw has been given a ip against Clarence a er and others.

DIED AT

Mrs. J. A. McK ed Away Nig

Mrs. Goldie Eliz wife of J. A. McK the local hospita night, following ar she underwent, Su was of brief du taken sick only a and was removed last Friday. At not thought that a serious, and the